

Towards zero pollution in the agrofood and bioenergy fields

05 May 2021 | Romania

EU GREEN WEEK 2021 PARTNER EVENT

The event aims to raise the awareness about good practices in the field of circular and sustainable bioeconomy, advocate for a cleaner environment, a more circular use of the agricultural residues, a cleaner, more affordable, securer energy for local communities. Ongoing research projects will be showcased for students and researchers by highlighting the importance of taking actions towards zero pollution.

Projects

AgroBioHeat Promoting agrobiomass heating in European rural areas project aims to produce a mass deployment of improved and market ready agrobiomass heating solutions in Europe. Financed by Horizon 2020 programme.

www.agrobioheat.eu

Bio-based strategies and roadmaps for enhanced rural and regional development in the EU (BE-Rural), Horizon 2020 project.

<https://be-rural.eu/>

SPIRE has the ambition of starting a long-term environmental, social and economic redevelopment in Baia Mare, facilitating its transition from Romania's ex-mining capital to a leader of environmental design and production. Urban Innovation Action.

www.spire.city

COnnecting and empowering LOfcal authorities with Research capacities to unlock the full potential of CIRCular economy. An Interreg Europe project.

<https://www.interregeurope.eu/colorcircle/>

STrategies for Regional INnovative Food Clusters. STRING unifies regions sharing the ambition to improve the innovation capacity of their food clusters. An Interreg Europe project.

<https://www.interregeurope.eu/string/>

Organizers

Green Energy Innovative Biomass Cluster

www.greencluster.ro

Faculty of Agrifood and Environmental Economics – ASE

<http://www.eam.ase.ro/>

Institute for Economic Forecasting (IPE) part of the National Institute for Economic Research belonging to the Romanian Academy.

<http://www.ipe.ro>

Agrofood Regional Cluster

<http://agrofoodcovasna.ro/>

ZERO #EUGreenWeek
POLLUTION
for healthier people and planet

European Commission